Who's the hipster-ist of them all?

By MAUREEN CALLAHAN

MISHA Calvert likes to say she got the idea after getting busted trying to shoplift two Colt 45s from her local bodega and convincing the judge to let her off with her own brand of community service: throwing tomorrow night's first Mr. and Miss Williamsburg hipster vices while staging an ironic contest that allows her to outwardly revel in what, daily, they silently endure: competing for the mantle of cool on that perilous strip known as Bedford Avenue.
